PROGRAM:

Hugh Bowen
The Dangerous Edge

Hugh is a psychologist with a presentation to make us think about how we view dangerous situations. He used the scenario of standing on a high cliff (great photos of the cliffs off Wales SW coast) and how we are driven by curiosity and daring to look over the edge of a cliff....but also within human nature is that people don't know the danger.....

We do things seeking excitement or pushing to far at times.

If in life we have to much caution....life diminishes
If we take to much risk....we may not have a life to enjoy

With compromise between enterprise and prudence.
