THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Dave presented Mac MacFarlane with a Paul Harris Fellow. Mac has contributed to the club in many ways over the years, most recently as the Annual Golf Tournament Chair. Over his time in the club he has supported the Rotary International Foundation. It is a honor for Mac, and for the club to have a Rotarian such as Mac with us.

Congratulations Mac!!

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT:

EChOA NOTE FROM PAM _____ Hello All -

Well, here we are, planning for Feb. already - unbelievable. We have already signed up 23 new EChO families, with at least 3 more to go today! For your information, we finished out 2009 with 1,772 visits to our little cabin by the creek - that is compared to 1,232 visits in 2008. Whew! And all of this was made possible by your unbelievable generosity. When we asked for your help, we always received it - tenfold! And as for toilet paper - Thank You!!!!!!!!!! Our shelves are bursting at the seams with your beautiful rolls of TP.

Pam

We still need a new Program Chair for the upcoming year ...think about it.

ONE OR OUR RECENT NEW MEMBERS:

PROGRAM:

Peter Link, Retired

Peter is a retired Geologist, graduate of Univ. of Wisconsin, who spends his time today studying the climate issues confronting us today. As he looks at the causes of climate he divides them into either Anthropologic (man made) or Natural. Unfortunately as Peter pointed out most of our information comes from a dominate media, politicians, or Hollywood, certainly not the best of experts.

As studies continue it just raises more questions, but also disqualifies some of the of the inflammatory information given to us over the years.

PLANNING AHEAD:

Saturday Feb. 27, Crutches4Africa Chili Cookoff @ Mt. Vernon Country Club, $5.00 Tickets,

GUESTS:

Mary Lou Hale;

VISITING ROTARIANS:

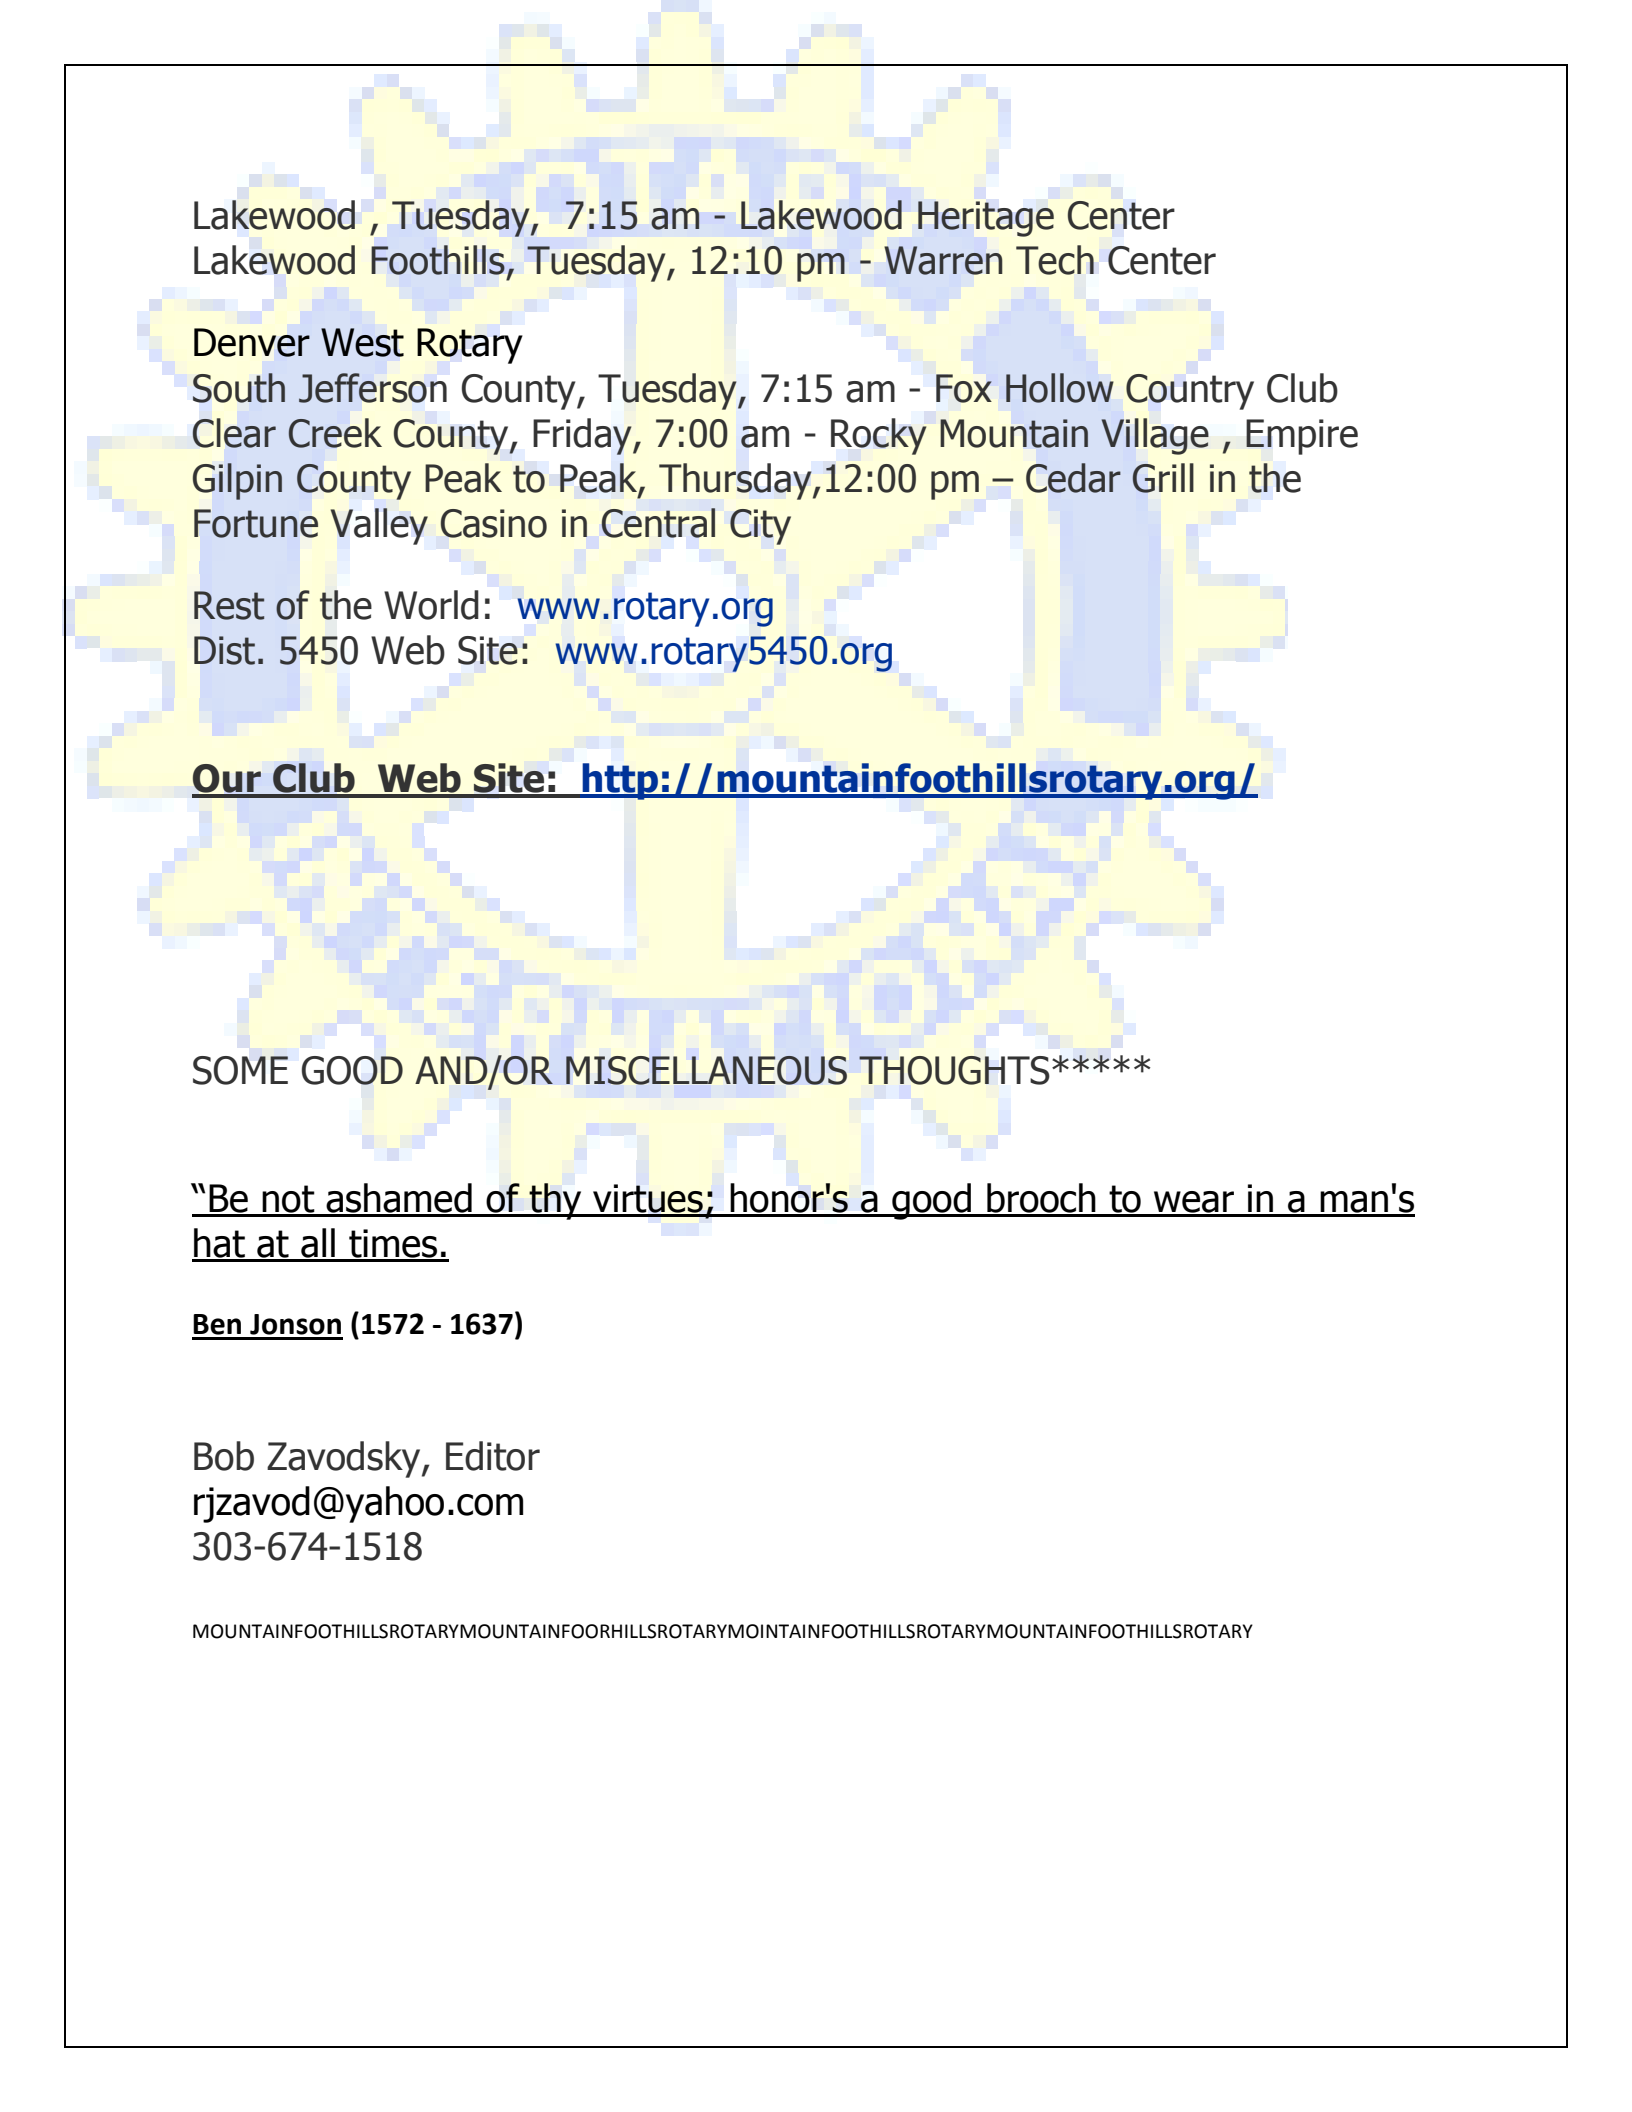

Susan Hammond and Vickie Autry of Evergreen.
